Home-prepared dog diet consultation checklist

- [ ] Decide whether the goal is occasional extras or a complete diet.
- [ ] Bring a record of everything your dog eats.
- [ ] Request an individual formulation for a home-prepared main diet.
- [ ] Confirm ingredient weights, specified supplements and follow-up with the veterinary team.
- [ ] Agree on a date to review body condition, weight and the feeding plan.

Ask your veterinary professional before substituting ingredients or supplements.
